Mr. Loro, her teacher learned that she can't speak English language well. Upon knowing Jona's situation, Mr.Loro becomes even more determined to help her. She wants Jona to have confidence, most especially when it comes to expressing her thoughts using the English language. So, Mr. Loro encourages Jona's classmates to make the first move in making a conversation with her. She also gives Jona activities that allow her to talk. Jona is very responsive. She talks to her classmates and does her teacher's given activities. She can now talk to someone confidently.

The class of Mr. Loro is so happy seeing Jona improving so well. They have seen the good result of their unity to help.

What will you do if one of your classmates need help just like Jona? Complete the skit provided below.
